

Overview of Rule 216 Commission and other compensation arrangements – Flowchart

Rule 216 is applicable to all registrants providing professional services to clients and employers if they receive or pay compensation in relation to referring or obtaining a client or referring products or services

