Are you interested in assisting CPA Prince Edward Island carry out its self-regulating function? Consider volunteering on the Investigation or Discipline Committee or training to become an Investigator.

Investigation Committee

CPA Prince Edward Island operates with the support of volunteers and from time to time, a complaint comes forward which requires a Committee be convened under The Chartered Professional Accountants and Public Accounting Act to Investigate a complaint against a member. Because all committee members must be free from conflict, a unique committee may be appointed for each complaint and thus a pool of members must be trained and available to take on the role.

CPA Prince Edward Island is looking to create a list of members interested in fulfilling this role. Volunteers will be called upon as required.

If you are interested in volunteering for an Investigation Committee or would like more information, please submit your name to CPA Prince Edward Island. We are planning general training in the coming weeks.

Investigator

In some instances, depending on the nature of the complaint, the Investigation Committee may appoint a separate Investigator to investigate a complaint. This individual is retained due to their special training. CPA Prince Edward Island is looking for members interested in participating in special training who will then be available to act as Investigator in complaints. CPA Prince Edward Island is prepared to assist in facilitating the training. A trained Investigator will then be able to assist other provinces in carrying out their investigative function.

If you believe you have the skills to become an Investigator, please contact CPA Prince Edward Island for more information.

Discipline Committee

CPA Prince Edward Island operates with the support of volunteers and from time to time, a complaint is referred from the Investigation Committee to a Discipline Committee. The Chartered Professional Accountants and Public Accounting Act requires CPA Prince Edward Island convene a Discipline Committee to hold a hearing into a complaint referred to it. Because all committee members must be free from conflict, a unique committee may be appointed for each hearing and thus a pool of members must be trained and available to take on the role.
